

I am opposed to changes in FCC regulations which would allow larger, more consolidated radio or television networks. I am opposed to changes which would allow one broadcast network to own another. This is clearly an attempt on the part of large corporate entities to manipulate and regulate music and news, and does not serve local communities in any way. It also eliminates the need for local personnel except for engineers at these "radio stations" and allows a few people to control the music that is broadcast.